Boarding Terms:

Daily rate will be charged for each and every day, with the exception of outgoing day if the pet is picked up by 12 PM. Daily fee does not include special services, such as giving medication, grooming, training or any other special care required. The daily rate is charged for kennel space and feed. The daily rate does not cover damages that the animal causes or veterinarian expenses of any nature. The fee is payable when the pet is picked up unless otherwise specified on a long-term boarding arrangement.

While the best possible care is given to your pet while here, it is agreed that Mona's Boarding, it employees or agents, Mona Jones and her staff are not responsible for the sickness, loss or injury to an animal left in their charge at any time for any cause whatsoever. If your pet needs medical attention while in our care, our attending veterinarian will provide the necessary services and care through consultation with your veterinarian if deemed necessary. If pets expires while under our care, the body will be preserved as circumstances permit at owners expense. If the owner would prefer a different arrangement, specify above.

Special Note:

The owner hereby agrees to notify Mona's Boarding in the event that the pet is to be left longer than indicated herein as the agreed time of boarding. In the event, that the pet is not claimed or paid for within ten (10) days of the end indicated for removal, the pet will be considered abandoned by the owner and Mona's Boarding shall have the right to dispose of the pet in any manner, at their sole discretion, as Mona's Boarding considers appropriate under the circumstances. The boarding term may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties.
